Sir/Madam. _

As per the directions of Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, the University Grants Commission has already issued a circular vide No. F.1-15/2009(Ragging) dated 17th May, 2008 to all Universities/ Colleges regarding anti-ragging measures. It is once again reiterated that strict compliance of the aforesaid order should be ensured in your institution.

As you are aware, a toll-free Anti Ragging Help Line No. 1800 180552 has been established. Adequate publicity about this helpline should be made so that the students in distress owing to ragging related incidents can access this toll-free helpline or contact Ed. CIL (India) Limited, Main office, Ed. CIL House, 18A, Sector-16A, Noida-201 301, UP.

The Institutions may erect suitable hoardings/bill boards/banners in prominent places within the campus to exhort the students to prevent or not to indulge in ragging and also indicating therein the names of the officials and their telephone numbers to be contacted in case of ragging.

The educational institutions may also undertake any other form of campaigns as it may consider appropriate for prevention of ragging.

All educational institutions should form Anti-Ragging Committees and Squads to ensure that the Raghavan Committee recommendations are followed without exception.

All universities/colleges should mention in their prospectus/brochures the total number of "ragging incidents" that have taken place in their institutions in each year for information of the public.

Various steps taken by your institution for prevention of ragging and compliance of the above order may also be intimated to the UGC.

Yours sincerely,
